

The Wisconsin telephone no-call list must stay in place. I choose to live in peace in my own home without interruptions of telemarketers constantly trying to separate me from my money with unwanted and unneeded goods and services.